

Muskwa-Kechika Storytelling Retreat

Overview of Retreat:

The retreat is being hosted by Wayne Sawchuk, a photographer and conservationist (<http://www.muskwakechika.com>) who has been conducting guiding trips into the Muskwa-Kechika since 1985. Through his work with industry and wilderness organizations, Wayne has been instrumental in creating a wilderness management area that is serving as a model for remaining wilderness areas in other parts of the world.

The 2015 storytelling retreat seeks to raise awareness of the values of the Muskwa-Kechika Management Area and to allow artists interested in storytelling to broaden their individual perceptions of nature and wilderness. Under the mentorship of renowned storytellers Ivan Coyote and Art Napoleon, participants will be expected to create a story at the retreat to be recorded and made available online.

The retreat is being organized by Writing on the Ridge (www.writingontheridge.com), a non-profit organization dedicated to the fostering of arts in northern British Columbia.

The retreat is limited to 12 participants.

2015 Storytelling Retreat Mentors:

Ivan Coyote

Ivan Coyote was born and raised in Whitehorse, Yukon Territory. An award-winning author and a renowned performer, Ivan's first love is live storytelling and over the last nineteen years has become an audience favourite at music, poetry, spoken word and writer's festivals from Anchorage to Amsterdam.

Art Napoleon

Art Napoleon is an award-winning songwriter, storyteller and humorist with a mystic's heart. He has that rare ability to genuinely connect with audiences without technical gadgetry or gimmicks. Napoleon has a penchant for the surreal and the absurd cloaked in an irreverent tribal spirituality. Add his naughty tall tales about rez life and walking in two worlds and you have an experience that critics call "ancient & powerful."

Deadline for Application is April 30, 2015 (midnight). Retreat is limited to 12 participants.

Date of Retreat:

- The retreat will be held August 16-23, 2015.
